

Your Opportunity to Buy Writing Paper

Pound papers are always the more economical in buying stationery—and because we give you sixteen ounces of writing paper—about 90 sheets—in each pound, ours is the more economical to buy.

Lord Baltimore Writing Paper

Is a grade for which you may ordinarily pay as much as 35c but is a paper we specially feature at 25c per pound. Deep point ply envelopes to match, 50 in a carton, cost you 25c.

An Exceptional Value

During this month we are making a special feature of this stationery, offering one pound of the paper and fifty of the envelopes, a combination for which we ordinarily ask 50c.

The Two—Special for 39c.

Don't wait until you need writing paper—buy it while you can get it at this price.

Lord Baltimore Writing Paper is sold only at the REXALL Store.

FEATURE HOUSE
TONIGHT

"HIS PICTURE IN THE PAPER"
Triangle Fine Arts picture in which a very realistic prize fight takes place. Douglas Fairbanks stars. Douglas Fairbanks showed that he knew how to handle the gloves himself and his action in the ring was declared by experts to be fully up to that of some of the professionals. Terry McGovern, former lightweight champion, and his manager, Sam Harris, were among the notable guests of the management. In this story Fairbanks plays a ne'er-do-well son of a wealthy food product king. He wants to marry a nice young girl, but among other things he is told that he must go out and do something for the family name as well as himself before he can get the girl. Then the fun starts.

"BETTER LATE THAN NEVER"
Keystone comedy, with regular Keystone all-star cast. One of Mack Bennett's productions.
WEDNESDAY—"Her Mother's Secret." From the great stage success by Martha Woodrow. William Fox production, with Ralph Kellard and Dorothy Green.

Matinee open 2 to 5 p. m. Night show on 7 to 11 p. m.

We have a feature picture every day in the week, the best of seats, the best of music, a Warlike twenty-five piece orchestra.

Why the Rainbow Is Round.
The rainbow is round, partly because the way in which light rays come from the sun makes it round, and partly, perhaps, because the little drops of water it shows through are themselves round. The rainbow really should be a full circle, but we can see only one bow-shaped half of it which gives it its name, rainbow. From Boys' and Girls' Ask-at-Home Questions, by Marian E. Bailey.

AVOID SPRING COLDS

Sudden changes, high winds, shifting seasons cause colds and grippe, and these spring colds are annoying and dangerous, and are likely to turn into a chronic summer cough. In such cases take a treatment of Dr. King's New Discovery, a pleasant Laxative Tar Syrup. It soothes the cough, checks the cold and helps break up an attack of grippe. Its already prepared, no mixing or fussing. Just ask your druggist for a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery. Tested and tried for over 46 years.—Adv d-w

Mrs. Phyllis—What do you mean? Mrs. Rankin—When she wants to scrub her front steps she fastens a couple of brushes on the feet of her boy Willie and lets him pretend he is roller skating in the soapuds.

In Kings' Houses.

The German emperor's palace at Corfu, recently a subject of newspaper dispatches, is described as a magnificent white marble edifice, one of the most luxurious royal residences ever built. It was formerly the property of the unfortunate Empress Elizabeth of Austria, who lavished vast sums on its embellishment. It contains over a hundred rooms and is surrounded by wonderful gardens.

"Some show for your this dime"
"QUANTRELL" or the
GUERRILLA CHIEF'S LAST STAND
3-Reels—3

The life's battle of Captain William H. Quantrell is no doubt familiar to every reader of Civil war history. His daring and bravery at the front in line of battle made him famous with his superior officers. Quantrell organized a company of his own. This famous cavalry consisted of such men as Cole Younger, Jim Younger, Jesse and Frank James, George Todd, Al Shepard, Buck Taylor and many others made up of that old Missouri fighting blood that were always ready to go to the front and fight for a true and just cause. You must see this picture to appreciate the real true seat of the cruel cold wars of northern Missouri. Some of the scenes you will witness will make you laugh, while others just the reverse. Cole Younger saves the life of young Elkins, who later becomes U. S. senator. He died a true friend of Cole Younger.

THIEF OR BUSINESS MAN?

Some Reflections on Honesty That May Seem a Little Harsh at the First Reading.

If you deliberately plan to sell to another man something which you know is not worth the price you ask, and you depend on his lack of knowledge concerning it to make it possible for you to carry out the deal, you are a thief.

Oh, it sounds a little harsh, does it? Anyone making that statement to you—you would call him a liar?

You hold that an article is worth to another man just what he is willing to pay for it.

Mighty slimy cover for your dishonesty, this.

If your conscience does not bother you after you have made a deal in which you know that you have wrongfully convinced a man that something you sold him represents what he paid for it, you have a mean, dishonest streak in you.

You are taking from that man something to which you are not entitled. That is what the man does who enters your house at night and robs you.

That he gives you nothing in return and has not asked your permission before he takes it is not an argument on which you may refute the statement that you are a thief.

Every bit that you have taken in excess of the worth of the article you sell makes you a dishonest man.—Exchange.

A Crying Demand.

A certain family in a small Kentucky town is notorious for its lack of domestic harmony. Late one summer afternoon the small son of the house was leaning against the dooryard gate, crying with great energy.

Old Mrs. Beals passed.

"What's the matter, little boy?"

"Th-they won't take me to the movie show!" he howled.

"Do they ever take you when you cry like that?"

"Sometimes they do an' sometimes they don't, but it ain't no trouble to yell."

Drug Prices Still Soaring.

Here are a few prices of drugs used largely in medicine, just before the war and today, as quoted by the Journal of the American Medical Association: Acetanilid, 20 cents a pound; today, $2. Calomel, 50 cents; $1.50. Carbolic acid, 9 cents; 48 cents. Cod liver oil, $18 a barrel; today, $87. Phenacetin, 50 cents an ounce; today, $15. Quinine, 50 cents an ounce; today, $17.50.
